

Parent Activities

Read Annabelle's Best Spring Ever. Here are activities to do at home. Annabelle is having a birthday! She invites all of her friends to attend her birthday party. They laugh and play all day and she gets a kite!

- Read the story Annabelle's Best Spring Ever. Ask your child to retell the story as you look at each page in the book.
- Go on a letter hunt around your house. Ask your child to look for objects that begin with the letters 'A' and 'S.' Then, ask your child to draw a picture of the objects you find.
- Tell your child about a time it was your birthday or about a time you went to a friend's birthday party. Did you have fun? What did you do at the party?
- Ask your child to draw a birthday party hat for Annabelle.
- Go outside with your child and look for flowers. How many different colors of flowers do you see?
- Write a letter and mail it. Don't forget the stamp!
- Go outside to watch the birds and listen to them sing.
