

Parent Activities

SNOWY DAYS WITH ANNABELLE

Read Annabelle's Best Winter Ever. Here are activities to do at home. Annabelle waits patiently for her favorite season...winter! A present arrives one day. She places it under the tree and it looks perfect. When she finally gets to open her present, it contains beautiful purple ice skates!

- Read the story Annabelle's Best Winter Ever.
- Talk with your child about the season of winter. What do you wear? What's the temperature?
- How is winter different from fall? Spring? Summer?
- What is your child's favorite activity that Annabelle does during the winter?
- What is your child's favorite winter activity?
- Draw a picture of Annabelle playing in the snow.
- Use your senses to describe snow.
- Use Play-doh to make a snowman.
- Practice counting with cotton balls.
- Cut out paper snowflakes.
- Have an indoor snowball fight with balls of paper. Count the snowballs as you throw them.

